M: A Cat and Three Mice

Three mice live in a house.

A cat lives in the house, too.

The cat is a pet in the house.

The mice are afraid of the cat.

But the cat is very old. It doesn't have teeth!

The cat just drinks milk.

The cat says, "Come out, mice! I can't eat you.

Let's play together."

The mice come out and climb on the cat.

They have fun together.

The children see this and laugh.

"Now we have four pets!" they say.

W: How Much Money Do You Have?

How much money do you have?

We can use money to buy things.

Peter has 10 dollars.

He buys a sandwich and juice.

He eats them for lunch.

Mary has 5 dollars. She has an art class tomorrow.

She buys two pencils and some colored paper.

She also buys glue.

She can do an art project.

Sam has 20 dollars. He goes on a trip.

He buys a book of puzzles.

He also buys gum, candy, and bread.

His mom says, "Buy some fruit, too!"

M: Let's Grow Some Peanuts

Let's grow some peanuts.

Peanuts are delicious and healthy.

We need a peanut and some soil.

We also need some water.

Bury the peanut in the soil.

Add some water, but not too much!

After 10 days, you can see a baby green plant.

After 40 days, you can see some yellow flowers.

The yellow flowers bend down.
They lie on the soil and change into peanuts.
After 4 or 5 months, there are many peanuts.
Add some salt and eat them!

W: I Like Your Costume!

On Halloween, kids wear scary costumes.
James has a costume party at his house.
Many friends come. Their costumes are great!
James sees Sally. She looks like a witch.
"I like your costume!" says James.
"Thank you," Sally says. "Say hello to my lizard."

"Look, there's Donny and Karl," says James.
"Hey, guys. Do you like our costumes?" asks Donny.
"We are zombies," says Karl. "We eat people!"
"Yikes," says Sally. "Hungry zombies!"
"Are you scared?" asks James.
"No, I will turn them into frogs," says Sally.
"Stand back! I will use my wand."

W: Is This Yours?

A woodcutter sits by a lake and cries.
The mountain god comes and asks, "Why are you crying?"
"My ax is at the bottom of the lake," says the woodcutter.
"Now I cannot cut wood for my family."
"I can get your ax," says the mountain god.

After a while, he comes back with a golden ax.
"Is this yours?" asks the mountain god.
"No, it is not mine," says the woodcutter.
Next, the mountain god shows the woodcutter a silver ax.
Again, the woodcutter says it is not his.
Then the mountain god shows the woodcutter an iron ax.
"That one is mine!" shouts the happy woodcutter.
"You are very honest," says the mountain god.
"Take all three axes."

W: They Like Her

My favorite story character is Pippi Longstocking.
Her stories are really interesting to me.
She lives alone in her house with a horse and a monkey.
Her father is a sea captain. He is often away on his ship.
Pippi misses him, but she also enjoys her freedom.

Pippi is not like other children.
She gets angry at adults sometimes, so she makes fun of them.
But Pippi is a good person. She is honest and cares for others.
A boy Tommy and his sister Annika are Pippi's neighbors.
They like her. They have many adventures together.
I want to meet Pippi and have adventures with her, too!

M: Jamie Turns on the TV

On Sunday, Jamie's mom goes to the market.
She tells Jamie to spend his time well.
"Read a book. Take a walk," she says.

"Do not waste your time."

"Ok, Mom," says Jamie.

Jamie starts to read a book.

But the book is not interesting. Jamie doesn't like it.

Jamie looks outside. It is hot and humid.

He doesn't want to go out for a walk.

Jamie turns on the TV. His favorite show is on.

He lies down on the sofa and watches it.

He doesn't read a book. He doesn't take a walk.

Soon, his mom comes back home.

Now it is time for nagging!

W: Do They Want a Pet?

Suzy and Sara are twins. They have the same birthday.

Today is their birthday. What present do they want?

Do they want clothes for presents?

No, they don't. They have many clothes.

Do they want a pet for a present?

Yes, they do. They want a puppy.

Surprise! Mom and Dad give them a puppy.

It is very cute and soft. It licks the girls' fingers.

Suzy and Sara care for the puppy.

Does the puppy like apples and carrots?

No, it doesn't. It likes milk and doggie treats.

Does the puppy like to play?

Yes, it does. It likes to play with Suzy and Sara.

M: What Do Bees Do?

Jim is learning about bees in class today.

"What does the queen bee do?" asks Jim.

"She lays eggs," says the teacher.

"She lays around 2,000 eggs a day."

"What do the worker bees do?" asks Jim.

"Some of them help the queen," says the teacher.

"They feed and take care of the queen.

Most of them get pollen from flowers."

"What do they do with the pollen?" asks Jim.

"They make honey!" says the teacher.

"So we need bees to get honey!" says Jim.

"Right," says the teacher. "They also do other important jobs.

They move pollen from one flower to another.

So plants can make fruits and vegetables for us."

W: She Is Cooking Dinner

Paul is bored today. He goes into his brother's room.

Paul's brother is busy. He is cleaning his room.

"I can play later," says Paul's brother.

Paul goes into the kitchen. His mom is there.

"Mom, play with me!" says Paul.

Paul's mom is busy. She is cooking dinner.

"Ask your dad," says Paul's mom. "He is watching TV now."

Paul goes into the living room. His dad is there.

He is not watching TV. He is reading a newspaper.

"Dad, I'm bored!" says Paul.

Paul's dad puts down the newspaper. "Me, too!" he says.

What are Paul and his dad doing now?

They are playing cops and robbers!

M: Is She Sleeping?

It is night at Dave's house.

What is his family doing?

Let's go around his house and find out.

Dave's sister is in her bedroom.

Is she sleeping? No, she isn't.

She is chatting with her friend on her cell phone.

Dave's parents are in the living room.

Are they watching TV? Yes, they are.

They are watching an action movie.

Where is Dave? He is in the bathroom.

Is he brushing his teeth? No, he isn't.

He is taking a shower.

Everyone is ending their day.

W: What Are You Doing?

Tinkerbell is a fairy. She visits Peter Pan's treehouse.

"What are you doing?" she asks.

"I am thinking about Captain Hook," says Peter Pan.

"What is he planning now?"

Tinkerbell flies to Captain Hook's pirate ship.
She hears the Captain talking to his pirates.
"I am planning to attack Peter Pan tonight!" says the Captain.
"Prepare to fight! Get your swords ready!"

Tinkerbell hurries back to Peter Pan.
"Captain Hook and his pirates are planning to attack you!" she says.
"Don't worry," says Peter Pan. "We are leaving now."
"Where are we going?" asks Tinkerbell.
"Let's go to London and meet Wendy!" says Peter Pan.

M: Vegetables Are Healthier

Candy, cake, and chocolate are delicious!
They are sweeter than vegetables.
But vegetables are healthier.
It is good to eat a lot of vegetables.

What about meat and eggs?
They are more expensive than vegetables.
Meat and eggs have more protein.
Protein helps us build strong muscles.

What about drinks?
Water is healthier than sodas and juices.
Water is good on hot summer days.
Eat good food. Drink a lot of water.
Then you will make your body strong!

W: Which Animal Is the Best?

Which animal is the best?

Whales are the biggest animals.

They live in the ocean.

They have a lot of space to grow.

They can grow more than 20 meters long!

They can weigh more than one hundred tons.

Cheetahs are the fastest runners.

They live in open areas in Africa and the Middle East.

They can run more than 110 kilometers an hour!

Cheetahs also have very good eyesight.

Dolphins are the most intelligent.

Dolphins can talk to each other. They make clicking sounds.

They can learn new tricks easily.

All of these animals are really cool. But none of them is the "best."

They are all just different.

M: May I Get into the Water?

It is dangerous to run by the pool.

Water makes the floor slippery.

The lifeguard warns people, "You cannot run near the pool."

Colin walks slowly to the ladder by the pool.

He can swim, but he can't dive.

He is afraid of the diving board. It is very high.

Everyone should wear goggles and a swim cap.
We don't want hair in the water!
Colin puts on his goggles and swim cap.
Colin asks his dad, "May I get into the water?"
His dad says, "No, you should warm up first!"
Now he is ready to swim!

W: Respect Other People

There are many rules at school.
Teachers say, "Stay in your seat. Raise your hand to talk."
They also say, "Don't run in the hallway. Don't be late for class."
These rules help students study.

There are many rules at home.
Parents say, "Clean your room. Study hard."
They also say, "Don't play games too much.
Be nice to your brothers and sisters."
Parents want their kids to be kind and diligent.

There are many rules in life.
People say, "Look before you cross the road."
They also say, "Respect other people."
These rules help us live happy lives!
